

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO

Miss Mary Muasky, 1449 Dixon st., will be married to Clyde N. Cowley, 428 S. Sangamon st., today.

Memorial services for victims of Iroquois Theater fire, in which 652 lives were lost, Dec. 30, 1903, will be held here today.

Henry Kroner, 26, found burned to death in bed in rear of saloon of J. Brauer, 4500 Loomis st., where he worked as porter.

Mrs. G. B. Guggenheim, former wife of Wm. Guggenheim, "Silver King," is here to look herself up. Doesn't know whether she is single, married or divorced.

Auto-banditing still fashionable.

H. J. Schmidt, New York, shot himself in taxi Saturday. Dead.

Wife of Kahachi Abe, 5735 Lexington av., newly appointed Japanese consul here, died at Tuamoto, Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Solomon, 1806 Grand av., announced engagement of their daughters, Kala, to B. Koral, 636 Grace st.; Lillian, to Dr. M. M. Fuchsman, 1113 N. Winchester av., as well as the betrothal of their son, Samuel, to Miss Anna Courlander, 1333 N. Campbell av. Triple wedding will be soon.

Faith Hope, 20, 1926 Fletcher st., dead. Heart failure.

Republican members state senate have agreed on program of constructive legislature. Split over selection of senate party leaders.

Petition to county board asking $25,000 for roads and bridges drawn up by Cook County Truck and Farmers' Ass'n.

Arthur Searcy, 4050 S. Dearborn st., injured by street car.

Joseph Levy, Jack Johnson's "little Jewish friend," released on $3,000 bonds. Held as witness against Johnson.

Mrs. Clara Kosmatka, 67, 1413 Dickson st., dead. Heart failure.

Albert Alexa, 52, 1417 S. 40th ct., dead. Heart failure.

Coroner's jury gave verdict of suicide in death of Mrs. Lillian Hearterode, Murphysboro, Ill. Poison.

Anton Kavurek, 2019 Allport st., teamster, injured by street car.

Theodore Nehl, 5600 Wilcox av., Forest Park, killed by Aurora, Elgin & Chicago train.

Esther L. Jensen, 9, Kenosha, killed by auto.

Stefani Dyeas, 3, 3642 S. Marshfield av., upset pail of hot water. Dead.

Joseph Tissen, 1347 Holt av., arrested, charged with manslaughter.

Louis Hilt, 54, 3059 S. Homan av., suicide. Gun.

Chas. Thrope, 661 Dearborn av., dead. Gas. Accidental.

First annual banquet of alumni of Tome Schools, Port Deposit, Md., held at Congress Hotel.

Jaohin Wozney, 720 Barber st., severely wounded by Anton Simon. "Unloaded" gun. Accident.

Unidentified woman found unconscious on railway tracks be-